

Quota International Clubs in New Zealand are offering young women, whose financial circumstances are severely constrained, an opportunity to apply for a scholarship to enhance their academic success. A maximum value of $5,000 is offered to a candidate who is interested in studying in a full time programme of study. Candidates must be citizens or permanent residents of New Zealand.

Full details of the Scholarship and application forms are available at Quota's website www.quotanz.org/scholarships or email Secretary of the Scholarship:
lyn.mckenzie44@gmail.com

QUOTA INTERNATIONAL INC.

About Us

Quota International is a non-profit organization empowering women, children, the deaf and hard-of-hearing, and people with speech difficulties in local communities around the world. In 1919, five business women inspired to serve, founded Quota International as the first international women's service organization.

Today, more than 4,000 Quota members, women, men, and youth, come together to help women and children overcome poverty, educational, and workforce challenges in 14 countries.

Areas of Focus

At the core of Quota International's mission are Five Areas of Focus that represent the needs of local communities in which Quota International operates. The work of Quotarians focuses on advocating to empower women, ensuring child development, funding deaf resources, inspiring future leaders, and delivering world service in more than 260 communities around the world.

Advocate to Empower Women

Empowered women establish strong families and communities.

Ensure Child Development

Children whose fundamental needs are met are more likely to stay and succeed in school.

Fund Deaf Resources

Investing in deaf and hard-of-hearing resources creates equal opportunity for all.

Inspire Future Leaders

Promoting responsibility in youth today builds stronger leaders tomorrow.

Deliver World Service

Supporting families in poverty leads to safer and healthier communities.

What you need to apply

To apply for the Quota Scholarship you will need the following:

- Two references
- A Personal Statement outlining your reasons for choosing the proposed course of study, academic background and or work/life experience and community involvement.
- Evidence of financial need
- An essay of how Quota International helps disadvantaged women and children and hearing and speech impaired individuals (no more than 500 words). Information to be found on Quota websites www.quotanz.org and www.quotainternational.org

What else should I know?

You must be a school leaver enrolling to study full time at a New Zealand Tertiary Institution. This includes University, Technical College and other post secondary school education facilities.

QUOTA NEW ZEALAND
EDUCATIONAL
SCHOLARSHIP

QUOTA NEW ZEALAND
EDUCATIONAL
SCHOLARSHIP

Supported by the Pye Foundation

