QUOTA NEW ZEALAND

Quota New Zealand is a non-profit organization empowering woman, children, the deaf and hard-of-hearing, and people with speech difficulties in local communities.

In 1919, five business women inspired to serve, founded Quota International in Buffalo New York, as the first international women's service organization. After 101 years the international body dissolved, however Quota Clubs continue to link people of all ages, occupations and nationalities.

Today, many Quota members assist women and children overcome poverty and educational and workforce challenges in 14 countries.

Areas of Focus

At the core of Quota's mission are Four Areas of Focus that represent the needs of local communities in which Quota Clubs operate. The work of Quotarians focuses on advocating to empower women, ensuring child development, funding deaf resources and inspiring future leaders in more than 250 communities around the world.

Advocate to Empower Women

Empowered women establish strong families and communities.

Ensure Child Development

Children whose fundamental needs are met are more likely to stay and succeed in school.

Fund Deaf Resources

Investing in deaf and hard-of-hearing resources creates equal opportunity for all.

Inspire Future Leaders

Promoting responsibility in youth today builds stronger leaders tomorrow.
